

WASHINGTON PAYS FINAL TRIBUTE TO DISTINGUISHED SOLDIER DEAD

Assemblage of patriotic citizens gathered on grounds back of White House yesterday at public funeral of first two District soldiers to die in France. Gen. Pershing, Vice President Coolidge, the District commissioners and Assistant Secretary of War Wainwright were present. (Photo by Photo News.)

KIWANIANS START CHRISTMAS 'PACK'

Begin Early for District Children; Hagerstown Club To Be Guests.

Taking time by the forelock, members of the Washington Kiwanis club, at their weekly luncheon, held in the Salons des Nations of the Hotel Washington yesterday, announced the appointment of two committees to arrange for their annual Christmas pack in the interest of the poor children of the District.

Claude H. Woodward, president, announced Mrs. T. W. Barrett as chairman of the women's committee, with Mrs. Charles Roberts and Mrs. Harry Hahn as her co-workers. These women will purchase dolls at once and begin to dress them.

Chris Pimper, Edward Shaw and Pewton Fletcher were named to serve on the men's committee which will look after the interest of the boys' presents.

A decision was made to entertain the newly formed Hagerstown Kiwanis club on June 9. Jack O'Rourke suggested that George McBride and a number of the Nationals be the guests at this luncheon, which falls on the day of the benefit game in the interest of the local Boys' club.

Thieves broke into the apartment of Mrs. Dolly W. McBee, 1099 Seventh street northwest, yesterday, and stole clothing and jewelry valued at $164, according to police of the second precinct.

Thieves entered the apartment house at 1924 15th street northwest, yesterday and stole from the apartments of Misses Silhan Brown, Lucy Luckring, Hilda Fields and Eleanor Kallock, clothing and jewelry valued at $185.

First District Soldiers to Die In War Honored by Thousands At Public Funeral on Ellipse

With a ceremony marked by its impressiveness, thousands of citizens stood with bowed heads yesterday morning to pay silent tribute to the 525 sons of the district who made the supreme sacrifice in the time of the nation's peril.

In the shadow of the Washington monument rested the flag-draped coffins of Vincent B. Costello and Hirane E. Cash, two of the first of the district's soldiers to be killed in action in France. Gathered with parents and relatives were Vice President Coolidge, Gen. Pershing, Assistant Secretary of War Wainwright, and the district commissioners.

The ceremony, a solemn high requiem mass, was sung by the Rev. Eugene Hannan, pastor of St. Martin's church, with the Rev. Louis G. Vaeth, subdeacon, and the Rev. James J. Hurley, deacon. The Rev. Francis J. Hurley, formerly a chaplain of the U. S. S. Charlevoix and now pastor of St. Patrick's church, preached the memorial sermon.

Have Always Responded.
We are gathered today to pay tribute to the District of Columbia lads who made the supreme sacrifice.

An airplane drops flowers.
As the services began an airplane from Bolling field flew above the gathered assemblage and dropped "Flanders poppies" made of paper. Following the ceremony the cortège moved through the monument grounds and around the ellipse past the White house and then proceeded to Arlington, where the bodies were interred.

In the sanctuary while the mass was being read was the Rev. Thaddeus O'Connor, an uncle of Vincent B. Costello; the Rev. Francis X. Cavanaugh, assistant pastor of St. Martin's church; the Rev. Valentine Ceuvens of St. Mary's church, Fairfax, Va., and the Rev. T. E. O'Keefe.

Here is good news for anyone whose hair is faded, dry, streaked and uneven, who has fallen out and whose scalp is covered with dandruff and itches like mad.
